TRU-CE

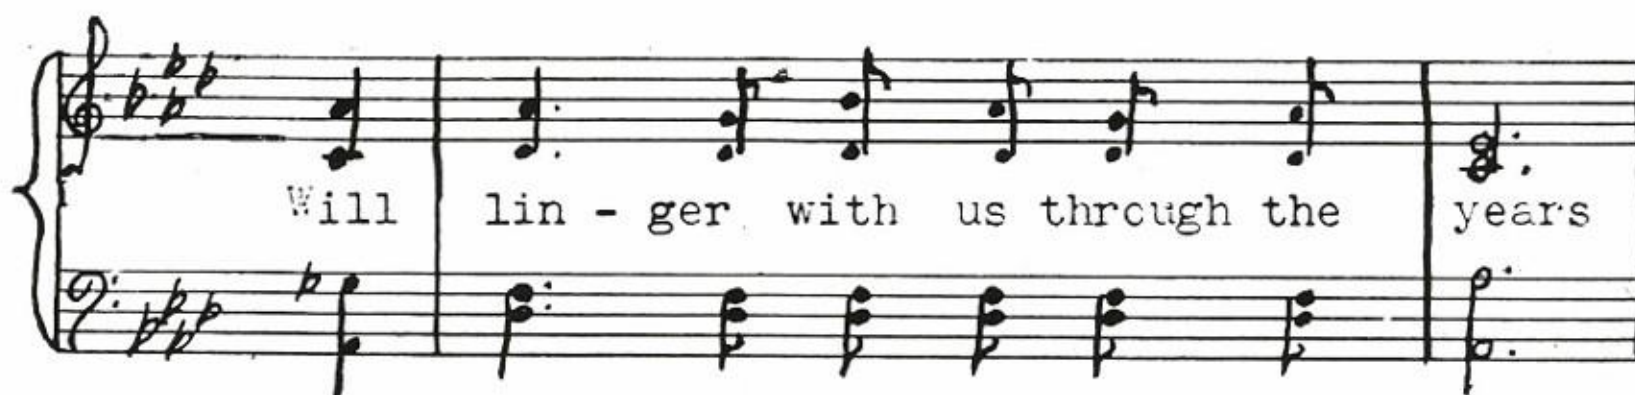

FOREWORD

The Class of '49 invites you to peek through the keyholes into the cherished hallways of good old T. C. S., where so many have spent their youth in thorough preparation for the future.

Through the keyhole memories will surge back to you of its teachers and administrative staff, tireless and patient in their never-ending efforts to instill in its pupils from kindergarten to high school a knowledge of necessary subjects, and, more important, a sturdy moral background and a worthwhile set of values on which to build a future. You will also remember the school's many and varied activities—its athletic triumphs on court and field.

We hope that T. C. S., the old battleground, as pictured in the Tru-ce, will awaken in the hearts of all who have loved it, sweet and nostalgic memories of old days and old ways in the school that was yours, and ours.

DEDICATION

To Paul K. Rice, The Planter, this book is lovingly dedicated.

He planted good seeds:—Straightforwardness, complete unselfish service, clear thinking, devotion to church, home, and school; deep understanding, keen humor, wholehearted laughter.

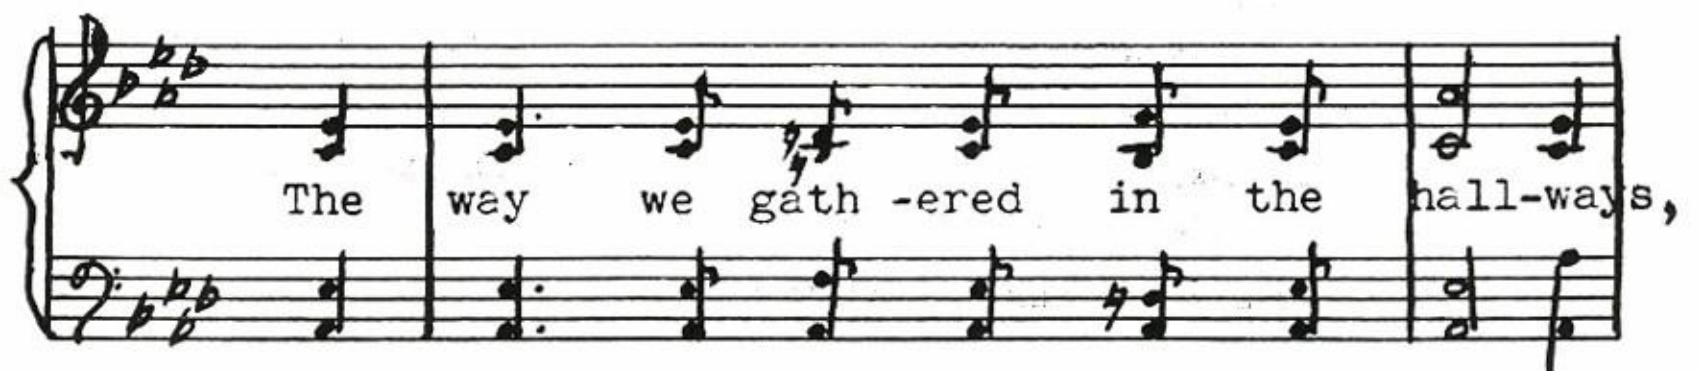

Our task, to carefully tend these plantings, that those who follow us may go on always, "working for Paul."

"Greater love hath no man than this"

THOSE WHO DIRECT

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education extends sincere congratulations to each member of the graduating class. We are proud that you have successfully completed your course of study.

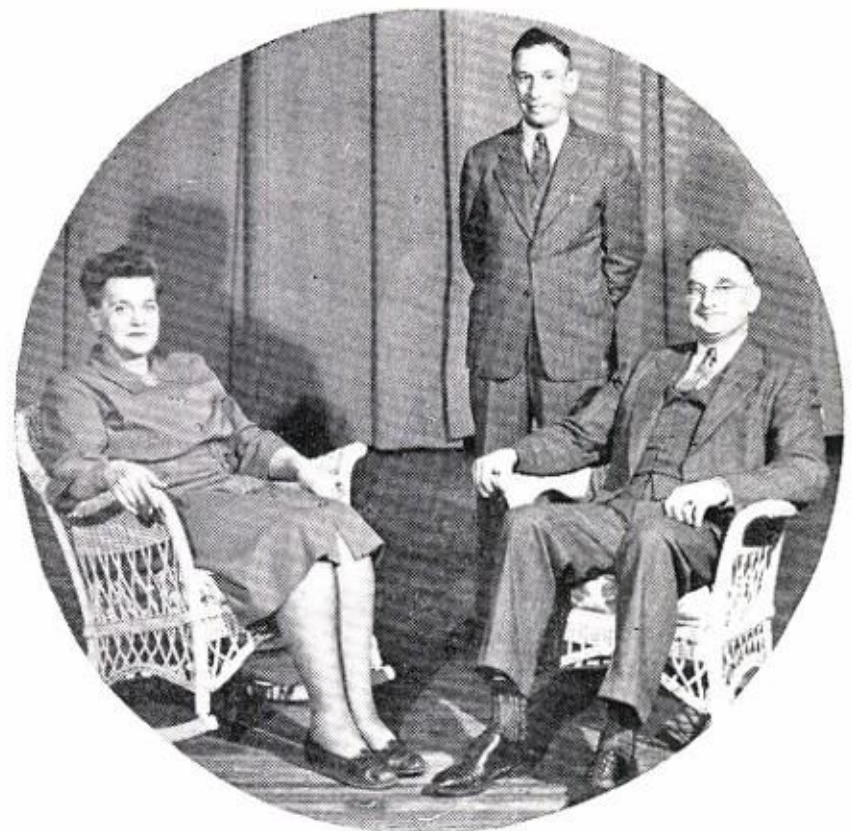

Your education in school has helped you to form good habits and attitudes, to get along with others, to value democratic ideals, to have good health, to enjoy reading, to speak and to write carefully, to understand music, to look for beauty, and to recognize good sportsmanship.

Your responsibility in adult life is to develop your own abilities and talents so fully that you find pleasure and satisfaction in your work, make worthy use of your leisure time, and, by becoming an informed and thinking citizen, contribute to the improvement of your community.

THOSE WHO RULE

To the Class of 1949:

As you say farewell to childhood and cross the threshold to maturity, it is our sincere hope that you will consider us a steadfast anchor to which you may return for assistance and counsel at any time.

Mrs. Lola Jackson, Mr. Charles O. Dickerson,
Mr. Russell I. Doig

THOSE WHO PERFORM

SENIOR ADVISORS

Mrs. Sebring, Mr. Johnson

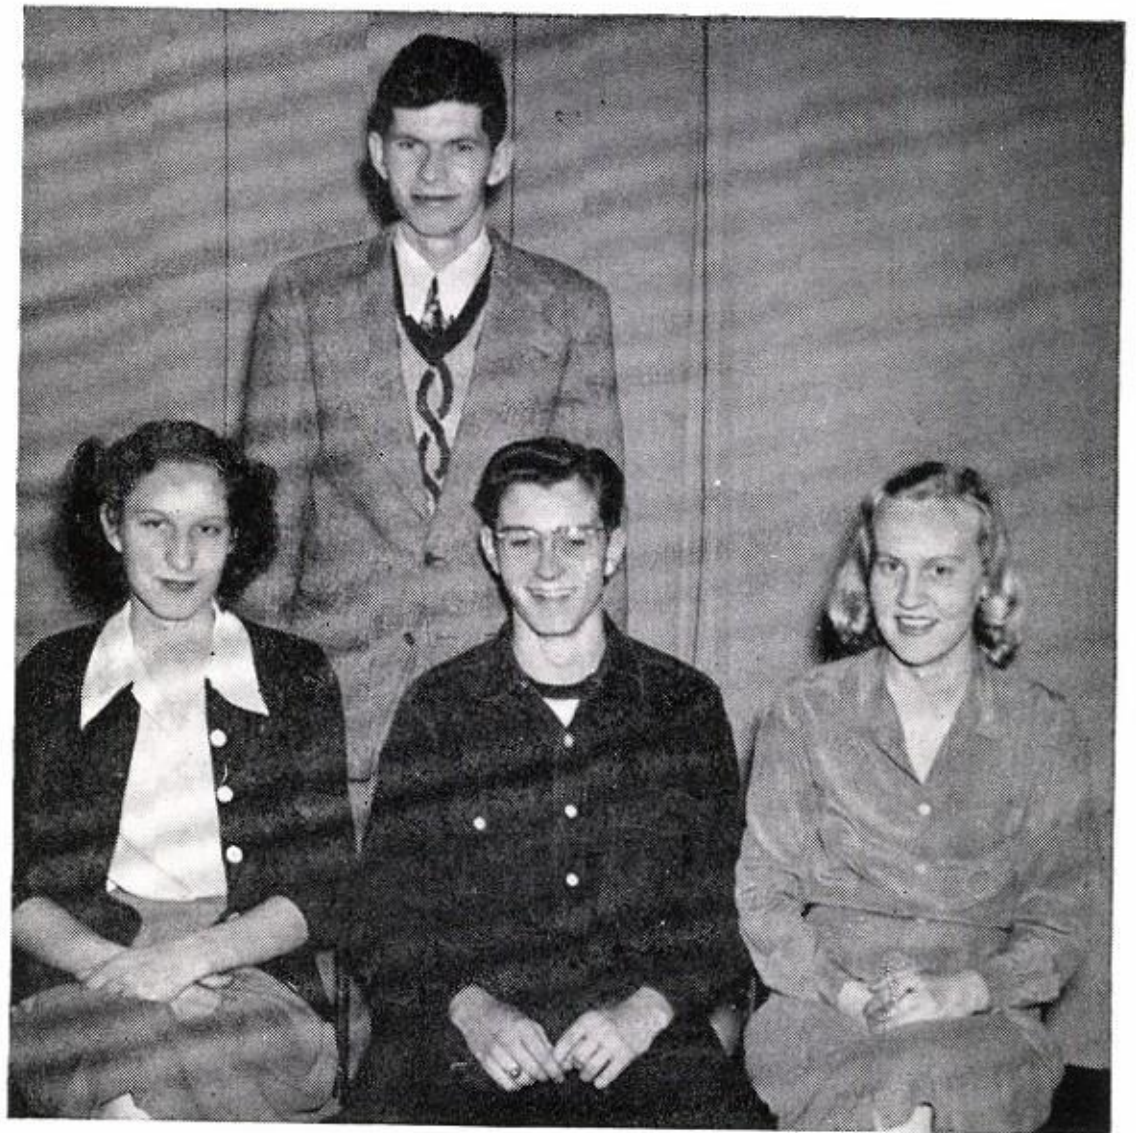

SENIOR ADVISORS

For our advisors during our Junior and Senior years we elected Mrs. Sebring and Mr. Johnson. Through all our difficulties from senior rings to busses they guided us. We owe much, if not most, of our success to the encouragement and the guidance of these two important parts of our class. Thanks a million, Mrs. Sebring and Mr. Johnson.

CLASS OF 1949

. . . HISTORY . . .

Out of the frying pan into the fire! In 1945 over fifty freshmen trouped up all three flights of stairs to invade the study hall under Mr. Johnson's tutelage. In a few weeks each one with his own aspirations began working to accomplish his aims. Each year a few more of the boys took their places on the football field, basketball floor and baseball diamond. Ken Murray and Pat Teeter were on the Student Council. At least one freshman closely watched the field of politics. Then, there were a few who, to their teachers' amazement, thought high school meant book learning. But whatever other hopes they might harbor, all those freshmen had two far off shining goals in common—the New York trip and commencement.

The world war was over when school reopened, but Mr. Johnson was still waging his own private war, for he was saddled with "those brats" again. Joyce joined the J. V. cheerleaders, and she and Phil kept things humming in the Student Council. After much work on the Carnival booths, the first few coins were proudly dropped into sophomore coffers.

When they became organized, Carl Keith was elected president; Pat Teeter, vice-president; Esther Uitos, secretary; and Elinor Bower, treasurer. A Hallowe'en Dance came next. Then, they pestered all basketball fans to buy their "superb" programs. "The Cat and the Canary" was their pride and joy. They edited the "Hi-Lite" and Jane and Carl managed their amateur show. The class of '49 hailed St. Patrick's Day with a round and square dance. Next was the junior movie, but they don't talk about that. (Nearly three dollars was cleared.) Again they set up carnival booths. In May they looked forward to their Junior Prom. When the big day arrived, the gym was beautifully decorated with pink, black and white streamers and fragrant lilacs. Elinor Bower was queen. Their junior year ended in ordering class rings and holding a big picnic at Taughannock.

They were seniors at long last! Now their two goals seemed very near. Although their budding politician's candidate lost the presidency of the United States, being class president was some compensation to Phil. Don Bennett became vice-president with Esther Uitos as secretary again, and Ruth Lovelace to balance books. Mrs. Sebring and long-suffering Mr. Johnson patiently advised them. One event followed quickly on the heels of another. First, there was the Hallowe'en Dance; then, the selling of hotdogs, candy and pop at football games; and later, candy and popcorn at basketball games. In the senior play, "Arsenic and Old Lace", Theodore Roosevelt alias Eddie Hymes wowed the crowd with the ringing word, "charge". Soon they were accosting everyone they saw with the question, "Do you have your Christmas cards yet? The seniors are selling the best cards you ever . . ." After Christmas a huge brightly decorated tree lighted the gymnasium for the Sno-Ball. (None of their customers, however, seemed to understand that a Sno-Ball was a dance, not a ball of snow.) January 1949 found them frantically assembling the parts for the Tru-ce. Later came another dance and other activities leading to their New York trip. At last, on May 25th, that happy wild bunch of nineteen forty niners left for the "big city" where they spent several thrilling days. If the folks back home could see them now! Their first goal was reached. Then, after moving-up day, the glorious Senior Ball, and other senior traditions, came baccalaureate and finally commencement.

Nearly fifty seniors were beginning to realize what four years at T. C. S. had meant. They would never forget the friendships, teachers, learning, games, parties of their high school years. Those four years were over now, forever. Lumps crept into their throats. . . . There would always be a special love in their hearts for T. C. S. . . . The coveted diplomas lay in their hands at last.

CLASS PROPHECY

Out in the forest a light is gleaming,
A band of gypsies, roving and singing.
What ho! my gypsies, what path are you treading?
Perhaps you can tell where our classmates are heading.

A brew must be made,
The future to unveil.
The charm is wound up;
Into the unknown we sail!

The nation's President greets us, Philip Huttar, by name,
Nearby you will find Don's asylum, the favorite home for insane.
Bill Dodge, the perfect farmer, is rushing quite madly around,
For Jim, the practical joker, has plastered tar paper all over the ground.
John Murray, who prints "The Free Press", sets up his copy each week;
It tells about Hilda, explorer, who makes wild animals meek.
Edwin's new three tired job is the latest in autos streamlined,
While carpenter Pat in his little old car is tagging far behind.
"Sparkie", our roving cow girl, is setting her horse's knee,
While Ruth, an able nurse, serves human patients tea.
Selling a dress is easy; Maureen will tell you so,
Next door you'll find Darhes' Beauty Shoppe, where everyone likes to go.
Fern's Restaurant's delicious food is known for miles around,
And Claudette, her pretty waitress, serves dishes fit for "the crown".
Since Keith Bower has so much trouble keeping his eye on his "chicks",
He has no time to see starlet Roberta, who's visiting home in the "sticks".
If it's a tank of gas you're after, "Jerry" can fill your needs,
On the way he passes Bill Hall, sowing his little spring seeds.
"The rhinoceros is simple to bag," says "bring 'um back alive" Alan;
At home, Ward of Ward's Cabins fills empty tanks gallon by gallon.
If it's New York's best known artist you're looking for,
Jean's secretary Reva will greet you at the door.
Aviator Jack, "the second Lindbergh", has his own airline, I hear,
While engineer Walt on his railroad track keeps busy from year to year.
Esther, the efficient executive, can tell you how to sell,
Her handy secretary Art sits on her lap quite well.
A neater house you never saw, than Marian can keep,
And Forrest, the village plumber, lets no village faucets leak.
An office with files neat and books with figures exact,
There will be Dorothea and Lois, where everything's intact.
Doctor Walden's favorite patient is his wife and secretary Ann;
They listen to Bob Raymond, the radio's newest ham.
In Denison's Model Agency many a girl has a job;
When chief model Marilyn goes for a stroll, she soon attracts a mob.
The most scientific methods are used on Harold's farm,
And all the neighborhood children love Edith, their schoolmarm.
Mary Jane's pies take the prize at every county fair;
Dorothy and Ann also have blue ribbon exhibits there.
Jean Connors plans the living rooms for all who ask the best;
And Elinor, the steam shovel driver, had trouble passing the test.
The fastest typist ever seen is what our Carol makes,
But Arlene matches her with the shorthand notes she takes.
Broadway's newest musical bills Joyce Conrad as star;
While down on the farm, Wayne talks crops near and far.
General Keith of the Army has the enemy on the run,
While playboy Hymes at home is having loads of fun!

The gypsies flit away
Far over the green,
Leaving us satisfied
With the glimpse of the future we've seen.

CLASS WILL

Having reached the zenith of our academic accomplishments, we, the Senior Class of 1949, being of sound mind and memory (they haven't found us out yet) wallow in the throes of approaching demise and bequeath unto yon parasitic pretenders the following bequeaths:

- I, Ruth Lovelace, leave my job as treasurer of the Senior class to whoever is unfortunate enough to get it next year.
- I, Edith Welch, will my behavior on the bus to Ruth Carman.
- I, Hilda Horton, leave my baby-sitting experiences to Pat Bower.
- I, Bill Ward, leave my bowling average to whoever really needs one.
- I, Carl Walden, leave my knowledge of one-arm driving to Jimmy Smith.
- I, Roberta Reynolds, leave my ability to sing solos to Alma Wright.
- I, Elinor Bower, will the Student Council presidency to whoever qualifies for the office next year.
- I, Claudette Willard, leave my knowledge of Chinese weddings to Freda Chase.
- I, Carol Adams, leave my ability to blow bubbles to Miss Bailey.
- I, Wayne Swartwood, will my loafing ability to Connie Thomas.
- I, Mary Jane Slaght, leave my ability to keep out of trouble to David Lueder.

We leave the school — for better or for worse.

We leave the teachers sadder and wiser.

We were going to leave a false ceiling, but it fell through.

We realize that all underclassmen deeply regret that they are losing forever the most illustrious class of mental colossuses ever spawned forth in one homeroom. Of course, no class will ever equal ours; all good things must end. Therefore, we appoint the Class of 1950 as sole executioners of this Will and Testament, being duly sworn to carry it out to the best of their inability.

OFFICERS

President	James Fergus
Vice-President	Bruce Reynolds
Secretary	Marilynn Frost
Treasurer	Larry Copelton
Advisors	Miss Hughes, Mr. Tarbell

The dream of becoming upperclassmen was finally realized by the class of 1950 when we returned to school in the fall. We organized under the able supervision of Miss Hughes and Mr. Tarbell and elected Jim Fergus as our president. Bruce Reynolds was elected our vice-president, Larry Copelton our treasurer and Marilyn Frost, the class secretary. Miss Hughes gave a party for the newly organized Junior Class to further the spirit of co-operation for the job ahead.

Pat Bower and Bruce Reynolds were also elected to the Student Council for the year.

As the months progressed, Richard Dean, Larry Copelton, Dell Grover, Jim Fergus and Clarence Wright took their places on the Varsity Basketball team while Bob Carpenter, Gordon Cook, Bruce Reynolds and Bud Van Wormer added points for the Junior Varsity. Our two Junior cheerleaders, Pat Bower and Marcia Wright, also moved up to the Varsity squad to help the boys along.

As we have worked this year, the New York trip has been foremost in our minds. The card party, movies, St. Patrick's Day Dance, Junior Prom, the Pow-Wow and the carnival booth highlighted the year's activities.

The job is great but we hope to accomplish it as well as the other classes before us have done.

CLASS OF 1950

CLASS OF 1951

On September third, 1947, fifty freshmen trooped into their homerooms to find Mrs. Sebring and Miss Paquin ready to greet them. This was our start to four years of high school activities.

Three of our classmen, Dave Boyd, Steve Slaght, and Russ Doig, helped secure the football championship. Alberta Hall and Frank Gottberg were our Student Council representatives. The first money making attempt was two successful booths in the Council's Spring Carnival. Cheerleading tryouts and basketball rolled around. Jean Hallett became a substitute on the cheerleading squad and Russ Doig, Frank Gottberg, Bill Scott, Steve Slaght, and Dave Boyd made the J. V. basketball team. During the season "Scotty", "Dave", and "Steve" were promoted to the Varsity. Five freshmen also displayed their talent on the baseball diamond.

Next year we came back fifty-one strong. Joanne Ferrell and Bill Scott were chosen as Student Council representatives; Bill also made the football team. Freda Chase and Patty Steve joined the cheerleading squad, and Martin Hayes, Jimmy Smith, Danny Griffin, and Johnny Robbins, also became members of the basketball team.

We all hope that being upper classmen will be as much fun as the last two years have been.

In Memoriam
Ann A. DeLong

Because of you, we will be glad and gay,
Remembering you, we will be brave and strong;
And hail the advent of each dangerous day,
And meet the last adventure with a song.

In September 1948, fifty-three hopeful young people climbed the last set of stairs to Trumansburg Central's third and last floor. They were quite proud of themselves, for now they were freshmen, but their pride was dampened somewhat at the sight of numerous books. The girls soon denounced general science as boring, some disliked social studies and English for the same reason, and a few found algebra a very complicated mass of figures and letters. It was not all work, however, for the inseparable trio, consisting of Herb, Willis, and Keith did well in sports the entire school year and Joanne made the cheerleading squad.

The freshmen showed up much better in the Usher's Club, though, for six of the girls were made members after their initiations.

At the class elections, Karl Newkirk was elected president; Joanne, vice-president; Evelyn, treasurer; and Carter, our secretary. Peggy and Karl Chase were elected to the student council.

So ends our first year as freshmen in Trumansburg Central. It has been hard work what with tests and the like, but we've had a great deal of fun and fellowship along the way. With this first year there will always linger many happy memories.

STUDENT COUNCIL

President	Elinor Bower
Vice-President	Bill Scott
Secretary	Pat Bower
Treasurer	Karl Chase
Advisor	Miss Grant

On Wednesdays, when the group gathered around the library table is called to order by President Elinor Bower, the meeting of the Student Council is under way. With the preliminary routine of roll call and minutes quickly taken care of, the business of the meeting begins; reports from special committees, arrangements for football tag days and season athletic passes, schedules for lunch hour duties in the cafeteria, renewal of membership in the National Association of Student Councils, the arrival of the membership pins, revisions of the constitution with new election rules, plans for the annual spring carnival, and the decision of a worthwhile contribution to the school properties. Only when the class bell rings, does this active group adjourn their meeting and leave their duties for the day.

Standing: Bruce Reynolds, Keith Bower, Bob Scott, Carl Keith. Seated: Nancy Mettler, Joanne Ferrell, Karl Chase, Bill Scott, Elinor Bower, Miss Grant, Pat Bower, Peggy Thomas, Peggy Vaughan.

THE 1949 TRU-CE

Brisk October weather brought with it the first serious thoughts of the 1949 Tru-ce. After the staff was chosen, our thoughts grew to questions such as, "How do we start and what shall be our theme?"

In December with the excellent advice of Mr. Ross, we had chosen the theme "Keyhole" and had completed the rough draft. The next few months found "Editor Bill" rushing here and there frantically giving out assignments, the photography staff taking pictures, the circulation manager plotting a successful sales campaign and the advertising manager lost in figures of dollars and more dollars.

March found the typists struggling furiously to meet the deadline—and we almost made it. June gave us the long awaited day when T. C. S. students were proudly holding their copies of the Tru-ce—another milestone in the lives of the '49ers.

POW-WOW

What a bedlam! What can be going on? That's right, you've guessed it. It's time for another issue of the Pow-Wow published by the Junior class. This monthly paper, featuring letters from alumni, the school calendar, the honor roll, school gossip, and school news, finds its way into the hands of practically all our high school students.

The Paper staff is comprised of Pat Bower and Asa Culver as co-editors, Dick Vaughan and Marcia Wright as business managers, assisted by an efficient staff of reporters. Under the able direction of Miss Hughes, the Pow-Wow staff has had a successful year of hard work and fun.

Standing: Anna Updike, Steve Weaver, Lynn Taber, Mr. Tarbell, Miss Hughes, Richard Dean, Harold Guyette, Connie Thomas.

Seated: Ruth Carman, Marilyn Frost, Shirley Strauss, Marcia Wright, Asa Culver, Pat Bower, Dawn Grover, Janet Updike, Carol Taylor, Kathryn Morris.

During the evenings in March the cast of "Ever Since Eve" struggled, not too hard at first, to learn their lines. After giving Miss Bailey numerous sleepless nights, the cast finally sobered up and learned parts and actions, and assembled props, etc., just in time for the big night.

The play dealt with the serious problems of a high-school newspaper staff. After grave complications, in the form of measles, mixed-up love-life, and a more mixed-up edition of the paper, had been overcome, all ended happily.

JUNIOR PLAY

SENIOR PLAY

Two crazy, lovable old maids, elderberry wine, and "corpses" galore characterized the Senior play, "Arsenic and Old Lace". Elinor and Maureen were the maiden ladies who poisoned lonely old men and buried them in their cellar. Eddie was Teddy Roosevelt, complete with mustache, pincenez, bugle, and cry of, "Charge the block-house!" Pat was a superb Dr. Einstein who fell into the window seat so convincingly, he nearly knocked himself out and stopped the show.

Jonathan, a second Boris Karloff, was played by Gerald Brooks. Jean Bickley and Phil played the romantic leads, and didn't mind rehearsals one bit! Carl Walden, Carl Keith, Jim Dean and George Denison made their stage debut in this play as policemen. Martin was borrowed from the Juniors for the "body", and left not a doubt in the minds of the audience that rigor mortis had set in. John Murray, Don Bennett and Arthur Bierce completed the cast. Bill Dodge, a "veteran" at the job, was stage manager, and Miss Bailey directed the play.

Mr. Timerson, Miss Bailey.

BAND

The forty-five piece band, under the direction of Mr. Edward J. Hamill, gave its annual Christmas concert on December 21, 1948. This featured solos by Elinor Bower and Naomi Breed. Also it contained a varied program of marches, overtures, and popular tunes.

During the past summer and fall the band participated in many parades at nearby towns. At most of these the band received high honors for marching. The drum-majorettes this year were Pat Bower and Joyce Conrad.

Some of the younger students have joined the band and they will help replace those Seniors who will graduate this year.

We are looking forward with pleasure to more parades and prizes this summer.

CHORUS

After a Thanksgiving program, the sixty-three members of the chorus helped to present a gay Christmas program. On April 3rd they sang some Fred Waring arrangements on a half hour radio program at Geneva. The big event of the year was the presentation of "The Trumansburg Fair in Song" at our concert on April 29th. The chorus also participated at the Baccalaureate and Graduation exercises.

This is the third year that Mrs. Dorothea Roewer has been our director and the third year that Anne Switzer, a senior now, has been our accompanist.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Trumansburg Chapter of the F. F. A. had a most active year. The chapter had three booth exhibits, and over 150 individual entries at the Trumansburg Fair. "Green Hand" and "Young Farmer" members were initiated by the Cornell Collegiate Chapter degree team. Lynn Taber and Keith Bower were awarded the coveted Empire Farmer degree awarded by the N.Y.S. Association.

The Chapter won first place in both the Chapter and individual N.Y.S. Chick Rearing Contest.

Chapter members participated in request program broadcasts over Rural Radio and WGY Schenectady.

Other activities included Empire Chapter Award by the State F.F.A. Association, Father and Son Banquet, Farm and Home Week, and the Fall Rally at Cornell.

The F. H. A. was first organized in 1946 under the leadership of Miss Elliott, with Alice VanWormer as the president. The next year they continued the club activities with Thelma Newhart as president. This year, with Jean Connors as the president, their activities have consisted of renovating clothing for the Community Council Christmas boxes, a combined F.F.A.—F.H.A. party, and a style show illustrating the use of cotton textiles. The president, and reporter, Mary Yaw, went to Dryden to install the officers of their new F.H.A. club. This club is one of the few in the state who have boys among their members.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

THE JUNIOR PROM

Amidst the scent of lilacs and the music of Red Herson, Elinor Bower was crowned Queen of the class at our Junior Prom, by Class President Carl Keith. The gym was tastefully decorated with black, pink, and white streamers mingling with pastel shaded balloons, adding a festive touch to the occasion. The Queen and her attendants were selected by secret votes cast by members of the class. The Queen's identity was kept secret until the coronation. The event was brought to a successful conclusion with a Grand March after the crown bearers, Mary Jenners and Dougie Reynolds conveyed the crown to the throne.

The Ushers' Club, which was organized in 1946 under the supervision of Miss Malcolm, is conducting its activities this year in much the same way as in past years. The purpose of the club is to provide ushers for every assembly and program presented in the school.

Besides ushering for these regular assemblies the girls have this year ushered at the Senior Play and Band Concert. They will also usher for the Junior Play.

The club had a party March 4, at which they made new badges.

THOSE WHO EXCEL

Back Row: Wright, Elder, Bower, Wixom, Lender, Swick, Slaght, Boyd, Reynolds, Fergus, Ward, Grover. Front Row: Warren, Doig, Scott, Walden, Keith, Hymes, Northrup, Gottberg, Seely.

Trumansburg's Blue Raider Football team captured their fourth straight Lakes Region football title this year, winning four out of five games. For two years they were forced to share it with two other teams.

Carl Keith captained the championship aggregation this year and was scored in individual scoring with 60 points.

Trumansburg won their first three league games, defeating Odessa, Romulus, and Interlaken. The Raiders found tougher going when they met Ovid in the mud at Trumansburg and finally succumbed to the Irish 16 to 7. The Blue and Gold went wild in the closing game to trample Dundee 40 to 8.

It was a very successful season with Coach Carleton Tarbell coaching his first T-burg football team, assisted by Bob Warren. The championship first team consisted of Eddie Hymes, Keith Bower, and Steve Slaght on the line, and Carl Keith, Dave Boyd and Dell Grover in the backfield, and Owen Swick doing the kicking.

SCHEDULE

Trumansburg	34	Odessa	13
Trumansburg	43	Romulus	14
Trumansburg	19	Interlaken	13
Trumansburg	7	Ovid	16
Trumansburg	40	Dundee	8

ON THE GRIDIRON

BASEBALL

Trumansburg's Blue Raider's nine were undefeated and in undisputed first place in the Lakes Region League midway through the season.

With Dell Grover as captain, the squad had captured five games in a row all by lop-sided scores.

At the midpoint of the season, the Raiders boasted three hitters with batting marks over .400. in the league. It looked like another title for Coach Tarbell's boys.

At the midpoint of the season, the Raiders boasted three hitters with batting marks over 400. Capt. Grover had an even .500; Dave Boyd was hitting .450; and "Swish" Swick was swishing the ball at a .421 mark. The teams' batting average stood at a high .371.

Dave Boyd and Larry Copelton shared the pitching chores for the Raiders, both compiling good records.

The Schedule:

Ovid	11	TRUMANSBURG	20
Dundee	4	TRUMANSBURG	11
Romulus	6	TRUMANSBURG	15
Interlaken	5	TRUMANSBURG	16
Odessa	2	TRUMANSBURG	21

ON THE COURT

Trumansburg's varsity basketballers had their most successful season in years when they tied for the Lakes Region Championship at the close of their regular season.

Carl Keith was chosen captain by his teammates for the season which carried the Raiders into a play-off game with Ovid at Sampson College before 1800 fans. Trumansburg lost the championship in this closing game when they were overcome by Ovid 42 to 30. Despite the loss it was a moral victory for Trumansburg as they weren't even given serious consideration this year.

Trumansburg won eight out of eleven league tilts during the season and had an overall record of twelve victories against six defeats.

The Blue Raiders opened with two non-league tilts against Sodus losing the first and coming back to win the second. T-burg defeated Groton 40 to 32 in a Tompkins County match before opening league competition.

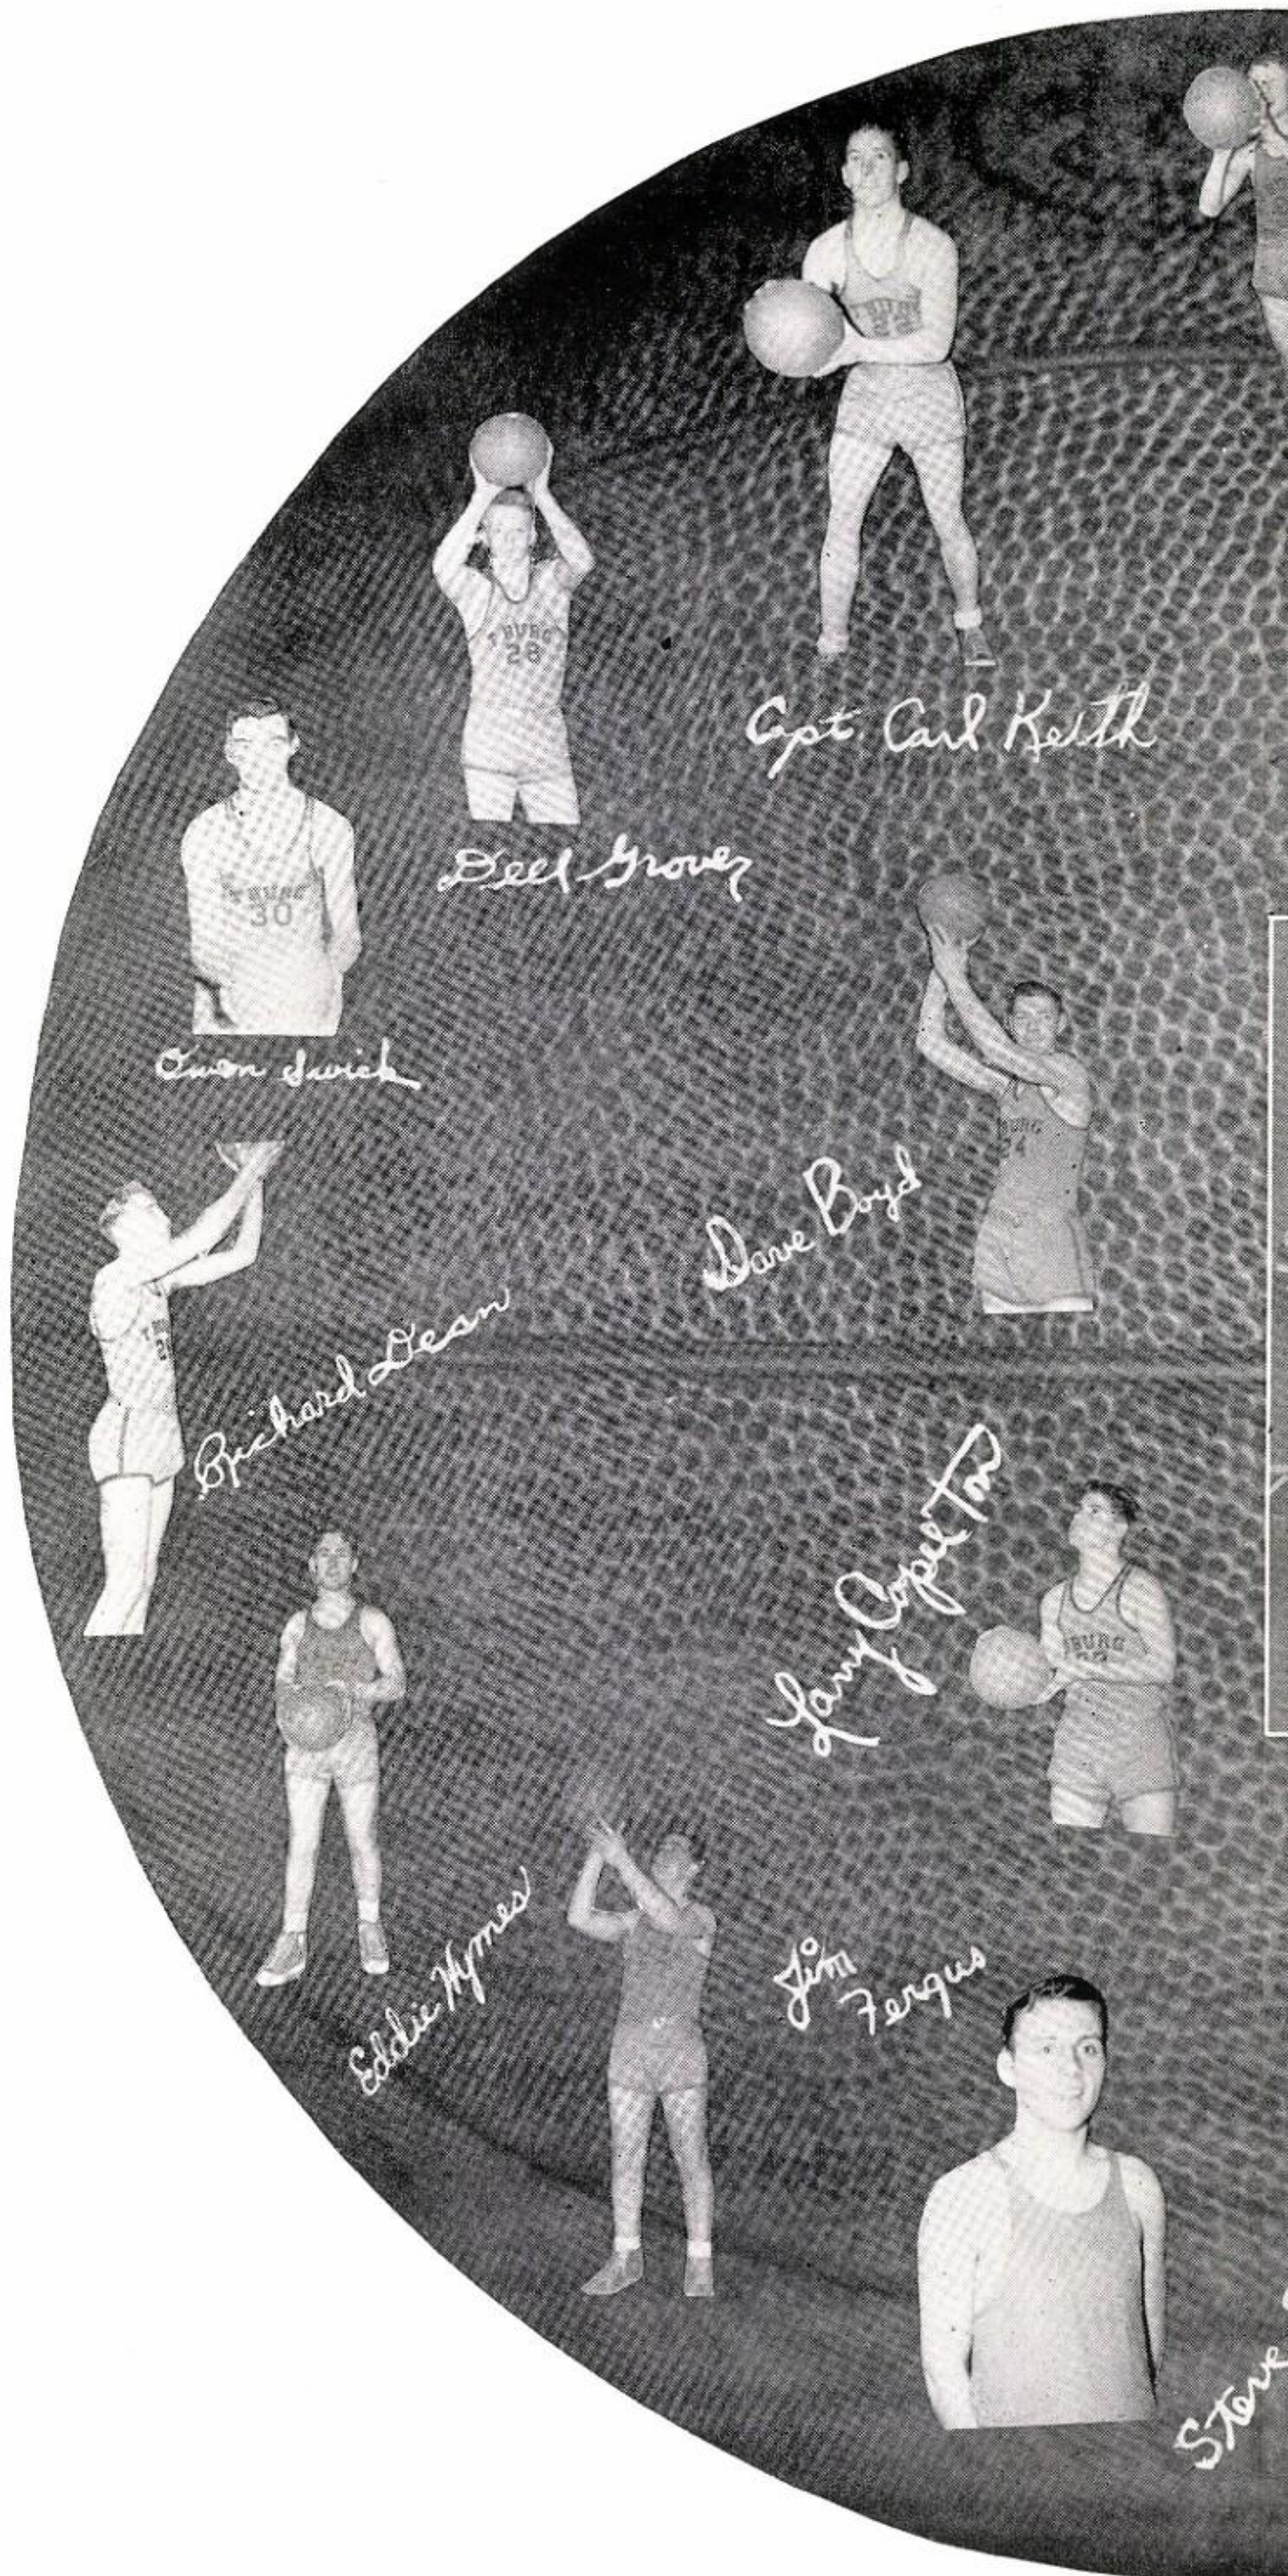

Ovid and Dundee beat Trumansburg in their opening league games 46 to 38 and 44 to 33 respectively.

From there Trumansburg won eight straight league games beating all-comers till their play-off match with Ovid. In addition the Raiders defeated Whitney Point twice and bowed to Sayre twice.

Owen "Swish" Swick was high scorer for T-burg tossing in 202 points during the season. Dick Dean was runner-up in individual scoring with 137 points and Dave Boyd was third with 111.

Despite the fact that Trumansburg lost the championship in the play-offs it was considered a highly successful year for the team and Coach Tarbell.

This year's varsity consisted of Carl Keith, Owen Swick, Dave Boyd, Dell Grover, Dick Dean, Bill Scott, Larry Copelton, Jim Fergus, Clarence Wright and Eddie Hymes.

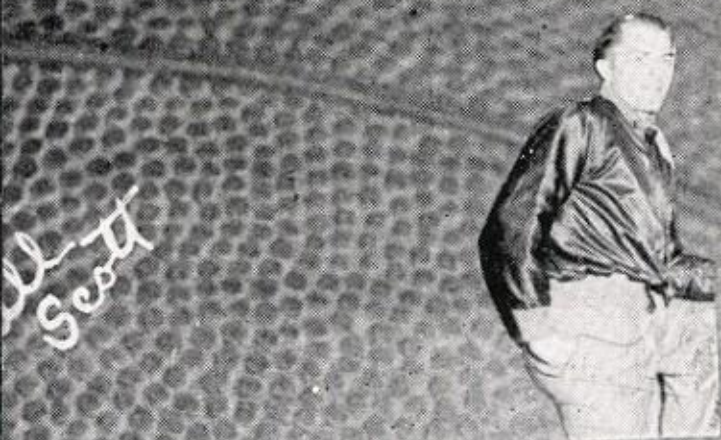

JUNIOR VARSITY

Trumansburg's Junior Varsity basketball squad captured the Lakes Region J. V. basketball championship this year winning nine out of their ten league games.

Clarence Wright captained the winning squad and scored 100 points before moving up to the varsity.

Trumansburg was victorious in all but one of their league games. Dundee's J.V.'s upset the Blue Raiders in their second match of the season, 24 to 21. The Junior Raiders had an overall record of thirteen victories and five defeats for the season, winning non-league tilts with Sayre, Whitney Point (2) and Sodus, and dropping games to Groton, Sayre, Sodus and Ovid.

The Junior Varsity squad this year was coached by Carleton Tarbell, assisted by Mr. Beckwith and Mr. Schaeffer.

MORALE BOOSTERS

JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Each fall the Student Council holds a big pow-wow in the gymnasium. As we peeked through the keyhole, we saw several high school girls practicing strenuously to earn a place on the cheerleading squad, and the words "Yea, team" echoed loudly.

Soon the echo died out and the door from the gym burst open. We then learned that Patty Steve, Freda Chase and Jean Hallett were the fortunate survivors who would represent our Junior Varsity cheerleading squad.

These girls each have two more years to serve as cheerleaders. We wish them happiness, success and true sportmanship in the future.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

As the year '49 rolls along we realize that Pat, Marcia and Joyce have released much energy in helping our teams get over their hurdles. They practiced diligently to earn and keep the honor of being cheerleaders.

Pat and Marcia have each served one year on the Junior Varsity and this year on the Varsity. They have one year to go. Joyce has had three years of service, one on the Junior Varsity and two on the Varsity.

Our cheerleading squad won the League Championship in February, 1947 at the All-Star basketball game in Dundee. Last year they were runners-up.

To Pat and Marcia, we wish smooth sailing for their Senior year and to Joyce, we say, "Happy landings!"
